Development Tool Survey Invitation

10 Participants to Win Renesas Compiler License

Outline

As part of our ongoing effort to provide better development tools to our customers, we would like to request your feedback.

We invite you to participate in the survey and give us your comments and suggestions on our development tools.

This survey is conducted every year, and your opinions have been reflected in the development of our products. If you participated in the survey last time, kindly share any opinions you might have in order to help us with improvements.

1. Survey Contents

The survey consists mainly of multiple choice questions about Renesas compilers and integrated development environments.

It will take about 5 to 10 minutes to complete.

2. Prize and Entry Period

Among the participants who submit the survey and provide comments in "Comments and suggestions on Renesas compiler products" during the entry period, 10 participants will win a Renesas compiler license. The prize winners will receive a notification from Renesas.
